

Photo and Story Sharing Form Questions

Encourage others to get involved in the work of Bible translation

Share your stories and photos with the marketing and communications department.

The Photo and Story Sharing Form is an online form prepared so that you can easily share your story and photos.

The following questions are all in the online Photo and Story Sharing Form. Please read through these questions even before you leave. Print, take this with you, and use it to make notes so that when you get home you can remember places, people's names, and events that you might not remember as the days pass swiftly.

Most of all—watch how God works—in your life, in a missionary's life, and even in the life of a national.
