Courses are scheduled Monday through Friday.

Each course is 90 minutes in duration. The only exceptions are ELL Facilitators Training and AFT, which meet for 3 hours. ELL Facilitators Training and AFT will meet for 3 hours in the morning or for 3 hours in the afternnon.

The location for the course will be announced and published prior to the first meeting.

Each person registered for a course must register for one Spiritual Discipline course during the week(s) they attend courses.

It is recommended students take no more than 3 course times per day including their Spiritual Discipline class.

Attendees must register and attend the first course in a series (101) before registering for the second (102).

Some courses within a series , i.e. Tech Advance and MAST Testing/Conducting Experiments have a pre-requisites. Check with your recruiter to determine if a pre-requisite exists. Two week courses must be taken in consecutive weeks.

Course size will be limited to 8 students. When the number is exceeded, attendees will be asked to attend the course at another time. If a course does not have at least the minimum required, the course will be cancelled for that week.
